

This petition has some merit and should be given consideration if the Morse requirement is kept. It gives entry level licensees a common area to communicate with higher class licenses and at the same time provides something to keep the "old guard" of CW advocates placated. It's not perfect since it keeps the Morse requirement but it is a move in the correct direction.